Homeowners within Maryland service territories for BGE, SMECO, Potomac Edison, Delmarva Power, Pepco, and Washington Gas are eligible for this program, which is paired with utility HPwES/HEIP or HVAC rebate programs - included measures may vary by utility service territory.

The CEA Loan Program is administered, in partnership, by the Maryland Clean Energy Center and the Montgomery County Green Bank and authorized by the Maryland Public Service Commission (PSC) to fund the program. EmPOWER Maryland programs are funded by a charge on your energy bill. EmPOWER programs can help you reduce your energy consumption and save you money.
